

CloudWhales Privacy Policy

Effective Date: April 15, 2026

1. Introduction

CloudWhales ("we", "us", or "our") is committed to protecting your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains what data we collect, how we use it, and your rights regarding that data. By using our website and services, you agree to the practices described in this policy.

2. Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of information when you interact with our website or submit a contact form:

- Personal identification information: First name, last name, email address.
- Message content: The content of messages you submit through our contact form.
- Technical data: IP address, browser type, pages visited, and time of visit (collected via standard server logs or analytics tools).

3. How We Use Your Information

We use the information we collect for the following purposes:

- To respond to your inquiries and schedule calls or meetings.
- To provide and improve our services.
- To communicate with you about our offerings.
- To comply with legal obligations.

4. Data Sharing

We do not sell, trade, or rent your personal information to third parties. We may share your data with trusted service providers who assist us in operating our website and conducting our business, provided they agree to keep this information confidential. We may also disclose information when required by law or to protect the rights and safety of CloudWhales or others.

5. Data Retention

We retain your personal data only for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes described in this policy, or as required by applicable law. Contact form submissions are retained for a period sufficient to complete the requested follow-up, after which they are securely deleted.

6. Cookies

Our website may use cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance your browsing experience. You may disable cookies through your browser settings; however, some features of the website may not function properly as a result.

7. Your Rights

Depending on your location, you may have the following rights regarding your personal data:

- The right to access the personal data we hold about you.
- The right to request correction of inaccurate data.
- The right to request deletion of your data.
- The right to object to or restrict the processing of your data.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us at the email address below.

8. Data Security

We implement reasonable technical and organizational measures to protect your personal information against unauthorized access, loss, or misuse. However, no method of transmission over the internet is 100% secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

9. Third-Party Links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of those sites and encourage you to review their privacy policies.

10. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Changes will be posted on this page with an updated effective date. We encourage you to review this policy periodically.
